FRESHMAN DISORIENTATION 2020

Dear class of 2024,

Welcome to Denison. It's safe to say that you all are CLEARLY the best group of autonomous thinkers, discerning moral agents, and active citizens in a democratic society that this campus has ever seen. We hope you have enjoyed your first week and haven't ripped too many water fountains out of Shorney.

The Bullsheet is here to give you a place to espouse your opinions, engage in constructive dialogue, and to make your mom proud when she googles your name. We publish every day for your pleasure, so be sure to pick a copy up around campus, check us out online at denisonbullsheet.com, or email Adam Weinberg for a copy. Above all else, remember to love fully, live simply, and laugh often. We know you're stuck inside and doing absolutely nothing this semester, you can always send us a submission. We're likely to run just about anything.

This is a unique semester. We'd normally offer some heartfelt words about the situation we're in but there's only one dude in the office right now and he's really trying to go back to his dorm and play some video games. Instead, we'd like to offer you these buzzwords:

"New normal"
"Trying times"
"Uncertain times"
"Unprecedented times"
"Flatten the curve"
"Stay safe"
"We're all in this together"
"We remain cautious"
