JULIAN AND CARTER BLOW IT!

Carter Seipel, Julian Rodgers,
William Eddleman,
They Blue It

Hysteria at the Bandersnatch! Milkshakes on fire, babies screaming, and a campus-wide break up epidemic. These are just a few of the things Carter and Julian are responsible for at last night's open mic event. The Bandersnatch may never recover.

Does Julian Rodgers even go here? He clearly does not have the GPA, IQ, DMV, or IPA to attend such an elite and autonomous institute. Does he even know that tornados can't actually go out to lunch? They don't eat! They're wind! Also if you're going to talk about t-shirt cannons, at least bring one. I was so excited to get a free shirt I'd never wear. Find God Julian Rodgers. Amen!

Unfortunatly, Carter Seipel does in fact go here. Someone should call the fashion police on this fella. That hat isn't working at all. The only thing working less than his hat is his material. This guy said Germans had spikes on their helmets like Mario villains. ERMMMMMM. Fact check. Mario was made in Japan. Last time I checked, Germany is not in Japan. Also he said crystals are fake. NOT cool! Crystals are so real. Has this guy ever even taken a geology class? I hope your "wife" divorces you. Amen!

Also why were they wearing suits? Do they think they're better than us? Just wear jeans like the blue collar Americans that you're destined to be. Comedy is not a lucrative career. Especially when you're bad at it. Good luck trying to "make it." No, seriously, good luck. You two are going to need it.

William was pretty good.

PLACES WE WOULD RATHER BE THAN JULIAN AND CARTER'S SHOW!

WHAT HALLOWEEN COSTUME SHOULD YOU PICK BASED ON YOUR MAJOR?

Arianna Griffiths,
Junior Writer

It's almost #spookyszn, but have no fear- I am here to provide you a foolproof, comprehensive guide on what to wear this Halloween based on your major.

Environmental Studies/Sciences

Environmental science majors, we know you're passionate about the Earth. That's why you should rock Dwight Schrute's "Recyclops" look while also carrying a bulky can around to have people recycle the empty beer cans, because there are no days off #the grind #climatechange.

Math

Your subject is the scariest to me, so I have one piece of advice to you: Just be yourself, you smart-ie pants!! To add an additional level of fright, just ask people what  $3925982 \times 129483911$  is and expect them to get it in their head right away! Just a tip though!

PPA/PPE

I'm not even going to try to tell you what to do because I know you'll think your idea is better than mine. And you're probably right.

History/INTL

Don't forget to embody the Dancing Plague of 1518 on the dance floor, baby!

Psychology

This was my personal runner-up costume idea as a psychology major. A Freudian slip! Use your inherent psychoanalytic abilities to piece this one together, why don't you. Have fun misdiagnosing your friends for a night. It's a Freudian my-parent-is-hot. Oops, I meant Freudian Slip!

Studio Art

Simply take inspiration from me in 2018 as The Mona Lisa. What a nerd I was! Everyone loves that painting (except for The Lonely Island. If you don't get that reference, go watch some of the Lonely Island. If you do, good, also go watch some of the Lonely Island). Shameless SNL plug- get used to those around here! Alternatively, you can go for the scariest drawing known to man: Doodlebob. If you didn't watch Spongebob as a kid, you probably didn't have constant recurring nightmares of this dude terrifying you. Lucky you- can't relate.
