

UNOFFICIAL GENERAL ELECTION BALLOT

NOVEMBER 6, 2024

Instructions to Voter

- To Vote: completely darken the oval (●) to the left of your choice.
- Note the permitted number of choices directly below the title of each candidate office. Do not mark the ballot for more choices than allowed.
- If you mark the ballot for more choices than permitted, that contest or question will not be counted.
- To vote for a write-in candidate: completely darken the oval (●) to the left of the blank line and write in the candidate's names. Only votes cast for candidates who filed as write-in candidates can be counted.
- Do not write in a candidate's name if that person's name already is printed on the ballot for that same contest.
- If you make a mistake or want to change your vote: return your ballot to an election official and get a new ballot. You may ask for a new ballot up to two times.

ELECTION CONTRADICTIONS

Elliot,
Believer in elections

I was driving home yesterday for dinner with my family in Columbus, when I passed a house in my neighborhood with a peculiar sign. The sign said “Democrats for Trump”. I get the whole Republicans for Kamala thing for tax reasons etc. But what the hell do Democrats have to support Trump with? I am actually baffled. So, here’s what I imagine people with “Democrats for Trump” signs saying to back up the statement.

- “When I voted for Obama and Clinton, I had a wife. But she divorced me, so fuck ‘em!”
- “I voted for Obama and Clinton, but I’m a male manipulator”
- “Inflation or something? idk.”
- “I don’t think the Democratic party is Sinophobic enough”
- “C-SPAN is nowhere near The Apprentice when it comes to ratings.”
- “Mommy Issues.”

As a bonus, some statements/phrases that are equally as contradictory as something like “Democrats for Trump”

1. Environmental Science majors buying new clothes
2. Kamala Harris doing something visible to the public as Vice President
3. Computer Science majors touching grass
4. Donald Trump using a microphone like a normal person
5. DU Votes being bipartisan (its ok its friendly fire)
6. Huffman having forks
