TOP 5 DIGITAL SNL SHORTS

Arianna,
TACO TOWN!

While I realize this piece is for a very specific audience, I think that very specific, small audience will really resonate with this. In honor of the recent 50th Anniversary of SNL and without further ado, here are my top 5 SNL digital shorts, ranked.

1. "Laser Cats! 1-7"

*Really embodies my poorly-edited iMovie phase as a kid. Nobody I have ever shown this to has enjoyed it nearly as much as I do. So, if you're a secret Laser Cats fan, text me ASAP I wanna be friends with you (***)***_****. If it's that bad, then why did James Cameron and Steven Spielberg agree to direct two of them, huh? Yeah, that's right. Cinematic masterpieces.*

2. Threw it on the Ground

Shoutout to my friend Colleen for introducing me to this masterpiece and to my other friends Echo and Meg for singing this with me every single day. "YOU CAN'T BUY ME, HOT DOG MAN!"

3. Dear Sister

Now this is an SNL classic. OOOO WHATCHA SAYYYYYY!!!!

4. I'm on a Boat

I sing this quietly to myself every single time I find myself on a boat. If you don't, ask yourself this: are you really even on the "big blue watery road?"

5. Lazy Sunday

This song and music video cemented YouTube's presence in digital comedy. Thank you, Lonely Island, for the hours-long rabbit holes we all go on now that YouTube is popular.

**There are obviously many more of these, and I will always share more of the ones that have not aged like milk.*
